*Ten measures of beauty were bestowed upon the world;
Nine were taken by Jerusalem and one by the rest of the world.*

- Babylonian Talmud

*F*ine Art photographer, Bob Munro of Sacred Pause, will travel over 7,000 miles on a spiritual journey, searching for the roots of three of the world's greatest religions, and the ancient land where they were born: Israel. He will explore the common ideals of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam, to capture the soul of each faith through the lens of his camera.

His journey will begin in the Old City of Jerusalem, which all three faiths regard as one of their holiest sites. Whether you light the menorah, take communion, study the Koran, or simply love historic places, this city will draw you in. He will then continue to the Mount of Olives, the Dead Sea, the Sea of Galilee, the Mount of the Beatitudes, Nazareth, Zfat-City of Kaballah, and many more spiritual sites.

Follow Munro's journey online, where you will be able to travel from the comfort of your chair and witness where Jesus, Muhammad, and the great prophets walked. Munro will provide first-hand access to this ancient, historic land, in a soul-stirring adventure via the Internet. Travel with Sacred Pause with periodic updates of the journey's stories and images, posted on www.SacredPause.com. To complete the adventure, "The Journey to Jerusalem" exhibit will be presented June 28 and 30, 2007, at the Sacred Pause Studio, so that all can share in this unique interfaith journey.

Munro will meet with all three faith communities prior to the trip, and plans to have interfaith dialog when he returns, through discussions and a workshop. During these globally troubled times, his hope is that art can provide a bridge to interfaith harmony.

Sacred Pause looks at the world in a unique way, usually taking the road less traveled, to find the sacred in the ordinary. Sacred Pause photography always conveys spirituality, hope, and tranquility.

Workshops

Would you like to hit the “pause button” of your life to be still, consider your journey, and encounter God in the midst of the chaos? The “Sacred Pause: Revealing Your Journey Workshop” was developed from real life experiences, my own, and will transform your life for a few sacred moments, or perhaps forever.

We gather for 4 sessions in the calming surroundings of the Sacred Pause Photography Studio to explore together such subjects as:

- Tracing your Life's Story - “The Turning Points”
- Embracing the Storms of Life - “Storms as our Guides”
- Finding Your Entry Point to God - “Freeze Frame the Present”
- Revealing your Life's Journey - “Mission: Possible”

“When you complete this workshop, you will know the art of pausing to see God in many forms.”
